Webull Securities (Australia) Pty. Ltd. introduces your client orders in HK/CN securities to the regulated related entity Webull Securities Limited who is subject to the laws of Hong Kong. Overseas-listed financial products are subject to the laws and regulations of the jurisdiction it is listed in. As such, before you trade in an overseas-listed security, you should be aware of the following:

1. The differences between the legal systems and regulatory regimes in force in the UK, Australia and Hong Kong
2. The potential tax implications, currency risks and additional transactional costs.
3. The counterparty and correspondent broker risk you may be exposed to.

Overseas-listed investment products may not be subject to the same disclosure standards that apply to investment products listed for quotation or quoted on an approved exchange in Australia and the UK. Where disclosure is made, differences in accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards may also affect the quality and comparability of information provided. It may also be more difficult to locate up-to-date information, and the information published may only be available in a foreign language.

You should carefully consider whether such trading is suitable for you considering your experience, objectives, risk appetite, financial resources, and other relevant circumstances.

We do not take into consideration your personal financial objectives, financial situation or needs and as such the content in this educational piece is general advice only.
